DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment filed January 3, 2002 is acknowledged and entered. Claims 1-83 are pending. Claims 68-83 are withdrawn from consideration.
2. The objection to the specification is withdrawn in view of Applicant's arguments. The rejection of claims 56-57 and 63-67 are withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendments. The rejection of claims 1-67 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Murphy et al. (WO 98/53078) is maintained for reasons of record until a new declaration is filed.

Oath/Declaration

3. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

It does not claim priority parent application U.S. 09/083,793 as stated in the specification.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

a) Claims 1-67 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 91, 96-117, 122-129 and 141-143 of copending Application No. 09/083,793. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the human-bovine chimeric claimed in the instant claims is disclosed in claims 91, 96-117, 122-129 and 141-143 of copending Application No. 09/083,793, having the same proteins, mutations and combinations thereof.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

b) Claims 1-67 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 91-93, 97-100 and 102-128 of copending Application No. 09/424/628. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the chimeric human-bovine claimed in the instant claims is disclosed in claims 91-93, 97-100 and 102-128 of copending Application No. 09/424/628, having the same proteins, mutations and combination thereof.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

c) Claims 1-67 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-4, 42, 44-50, 55-61, 74, 77-79 and 81-94 of copending Application No. 09/733,692. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the chimeric human-bovine claimed in the instant claims is disclosed in claims 1-4, 42, 44-50, 55-61, 74, 77-79 and 81-94 of copending Application No. 09/733,692, having the same proteins, mutations and combinations thereof.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

5. No claim is allowed. Claims 1-67 are free of the prior art.
